

salvation belongs to the Lord

a bird's eye tour of Paul's letter to the Romans

Romans 7.14-25

gospel (Rom.1.1-17)

grace (Rom.1.18-3.26)

faith (Rom.3.27-5.21)

sin (Rom.6.1-7.25)

sin

salvation belongs to the Lord

a bird's eye tour of Paul's letter to the Romans

Romans 7.14-25

Outline

Romans 7

the power of sin is broken (Rom.7.1-6)

why the strength of sin recedes

the pattern of sin is exposed (Rom.7.7-13)

where the subtlety of sin resides the presence of sin is persistent (Rom.7.14-25)

why the struggle with sin remains

SIN

salvation belongs to the Lord

a bird's eye tour of Paul's letter to the Romans

Romans 7.14-25

the struggle with sin persists (7.14-25)

- the essence of this tension (vv.14-15)
- the nature of this tension (vv.16-20)
- the reason for this tension (vv.21-23)
- the answer to this tension (vv.24-25)