

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.

A 'formulaic' approach can easily creep into the life of faith for the believer: how might that happen in your life?

Why is it so important to have a clear and 'recognisable' ("Paul I know") relationship with Jesus when you engage in any ministry?

Prayer: Keep me close to Yourself, Lord Jesus, throughout today, and enable me so to hide myself in You that it is only You that the powers of darkness see.

6) Saturday 12th August – honouring Jesus

Read Acts 19.17-19

".. the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour .." (Acts 19.17)

Word soon got out that you mess with the Lord at your peril. A reverent fear gripped the city, and hidden sin was acknowledged. Then as now, the occult was much more prevalent than was immediately apparent. Jesus' presence draws evil to the surface.

In what ways is it evident in your life (and in our life as a fellowship) that the name of the Lord Jesus is 'held in high honour'?

Are there areas of your life in which there is hidden sin which the Lord through this passage prompts you now to confess?

Is there ever a place for public confession of specific sin – and how is that best handled in a culture which loves to wallow in scandal?

To what extent does the costliness involved keep you from a life of holy obedience to the Lord?

Prayer: Purify my heart, Lord, let me be as gold and precious silver: cleanse me from within and make me holy; cleanse me from my sin, deep within [\[Brian Doerksen\]](#)

7) Sunday 13th August – preach the Word!

Read Acts 19.17-20

".. the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power .." (Acts 19.20)

God's Word is the means God uses to grow His work. When the message is focused on the Lord Jesus and comes with a demonstration of the Spirit's power (see 1 Cor. 2.2-4) then God's Word spreads its sphere of influence and grows in its life-giving power.

How does the radical and costly commitment to Jesus on the part of believers result in the Word of the Lord spreading widely?

What's meant by Luke saying that the Word of the Lord "grew in power" and in what ways (if any) have you been aware of that happening?

Prayer: May the preaching of Your Word today, O Lord, be with increasing power: may it be used to bring many to faith and to strengthen Your people for ministry.

Background

No church is given greater 'exposure' in the New Testament than the church at Ephesus. The narrative of how it came into being is given at some length by Luke in Acts (in 18.18-26 and here in 19.1-41): Paul's address to the Ephesian elders in 20.16-38 affords a further early glimpse into the life of the new church. That's followed by the letter Paul wrote to the Ephesians, and the pastoral letters addressed to Timothy (who by then was ministering at Ephesus). And in the final book of the Bible, the letter of the risen Jesus to the church at Ephesus (Rev.2.1-7) provides a sobering hint of the ease with which, as the years pass, a fellowship (or an individual for that matter) can slip back from their first eager and loving commitment to the Lord.

These verses record for us, at some length, how the church first took root in Ephesus. A church had already been planted there through the fleeting visit of Paul, and the ministries of Priscilla and Aquila along with Apollos (18.18-26): but that first sowing of the seed needed now some careful, sustained nurture, and Paul's stay at Ephesus for something in the region of 3 years, ensured that the church did indeed take root and grow.

Apollos was a well-educated, well-intentioned, well-enthused minister of the gospel, for sure: and, as far as it went, his ministry was fine. But it did only go so far – and the deficiency was detected almost immediately by Paul when he returned to the city.

Where Apollos had majored on repentance, Paul wanted to focus on Jesus. Where Apollos underlined what sinners had to do, Paul pointed to what the Saviour had done – and continued to do for His people through the work of His Holy Spirit. It was the absence of any signs of the Spirit's activity in the lives of these disciples which Paul noticed almost immediately.

How easy it is to get that wrong end of the stick and to end with a faith which lacks the dynamic and drive, the stamina and sparkle of the Spirit of Jesus Himself working in and through His people. And it was that activity of the risen Jesus, by His Spirit, which came very strikingly to the fore in Ephesus as Paul taught and explained the Scriptures during his extended stay in the city.

Read the whole passage: if you're short of time, 'days' (2), (3) and (6) are, I suggest, the ones on which to concentrate.

1) Monday 7th August – be filled with the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-2

“.. Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? ..” (Acts 19.2)

Reliance on the Spirit brings a noticeable dynamic to a person’s life: but it’s possible truly to trust in the Lord Jesus as your Saviour and yet know little of the work of His indwelling Spirit – often because that truth has not been explained to you.

What might have prompted Paul to detect a ‘deficiency’ in the faith of these disciples at Ephesus?

When you share the gospel with others, are you careful to explain the gift and the work of the Holy Spirit to them?

Prayer: Thank You, Lord Jesus, that by Your Holy Spirit You come to dwell in the hearts of all who trust in You: may the fruit of the Spirit be evident in all I say and do today.

2) Tuesday 8th August – the gift of the Spirit

Read Acts 19.1-7

“.. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus ..” (Acts 19.4)

Relationship with Jesus is where repentance is meant to take you: and in relationship with Him, you’re given His Holy Spirit. That truth was impressed on them tangibly by Paul, and the reality of it was confirmed for them (and others) unmistakably.

If ‘a broken and contrite heart .. God will not despise’ (Ps.51.17) why did Paul indicate that something more was required than just repentance by itself?

To what would you (and others) point as evidence of the Holy Spirit being at work in your life?

If someone asked you, ‘How and when did you receive the Holy Spirit?’ how would you reply?

You can understand from this passage why some argue for a 2-stage experience for the believer (trusting Jesus, followed by the ‘2nd blessing’ of receiving the Holy Spirit through someone laying hands on you): that’s not the significance of what’s going on, though – so what was going on and why did Paul do this?

Prayer: What glorious blessing You have bestowed on me, O Lord, quickening my heart to love You and opening my lips to praise You and to proclaim Your great Name!

3) Wednesday 9th August – the word on the street

Read Acts 19.8-10

“.. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily ..” (Acts 19.9)

As it had been in Corinth, so here in Ephesus, Paul went ‘next door’ (see Acts 18.7) to a thoroughly Gentile meeting place, where he could engage with all sorts and talk through with them all the good news of Jesus. The ‘Word’ soon got out!

Paul had ‘discussions’: it’s the word from which our ‘dialogue’ comes: how can this sort of fruitful dialogue be given expression in the church’s life?

In what ways has the opportunity to ‘dialogue’ with those who teach the Bible been of help to you in your walk with the Lord?

How would you describe the difference between Paul’s ministry of the Word in the synagogue and his daily ‘discussions’ (or ‘discussing’) in what may have been something like the ‘gymnasium’ of Tyrannus?

How might that latter ministry of Paul (not entirely dissimilar to Calvin who preached 5 times a week in Geneva) find expression in our life as a fellowship?

Prayer: Help me today, my Lord, to be ready for the questions which others may fire at me, and help me to know how to answer everyone with gentleness and respect.

4) Thursday 10th August – expect the unexpected!

Read Acts 19.11-12

“.. God did extraordinary miracles through Paul ..” (Acts 19.11)

Anything can happen when Jesus is at work! What happened in Ephesus, though, was ‘extraordinary’ (so don’t go ironing your hankies specially!): and it was God, of course, who did the miracles. He is always sovereign in the saving work in which He engages.

Why do you think the miracles recorded briefly here (and underlined as ‘extraordinary’) were wrought by God at Ephesus?

Should Christians expect God to be intervening miraculously in their lives and through their ministry?

Prayer: How great You are, O sovereign Lord! You make me glad by Your deeds, Lord: I sing for joy at what Your hands have done. How great are Your works, Lord! [Ps.92.4f]

5) Friday 11th August – relationship with Jesus

Read Acts 19.13-16

“.. the evil spirit answered them, ‘Jesus I know, and Paul I know about’ ..” (Acts 19.15)

Miracles don’t work like some sort of magic. Others were keen to replicate what God was doing through Paul, and tried to find the right sort of ‘formula’ to use. But it’s not invoking Jesus’ name which counts so much as relationship with Him.