Deuteronomy 6.¹⁻⁹

Deuteronomy 6.1-3

These are the commands, decrees and laws the Lord your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, ² so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the Lord your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life. ³ Hear, Israel, and be careful to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, promised you.

Deuteronomy 6.4-9

emphatic in your message

⁴ Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God,
the Lord is one. ⁵ Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

Deuteronomy 6.4-9

authentic in your object

⁶ These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts.

Deuteronomy 6.4-9

strategic in your planning

⁷ Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸ Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹ Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6.7-9

The background of the slide features a photograph of a large, ornate church tower on the left side, with a fountain in the foreground. The fountain has multiple jets of water spraying upwards. The right side of the slide is a solid dark purple color.

Lessons in leadership

The Ministry Training Academy is a new initiative for ministry training in the North East of Scotland.

Through a partnership of local churches, the MTA has the primary aim of training men for preaching. The course is open, however, to both men and women who would like to pursue excellence in the study and understanding of the Scriptures in order to deepen love for God and his gospel. The MTA aims to prepare men and women for works of service in the church and the world.
